2 In connection with the above proposals the S.G. has raised the question for replacing the existing honorary Asst Medical officer in the Ophthalmic Dept of the Govt Headquarters Hospital, Mangalore, by another. In January 1939, the S.G stated that no applications were received for that post and recommended the continuance of Sri C.P. Kamath MBBS for a further period of five years. This was accepted and orders were accordingly issued in G.O. No. 1552 P.H. dt 28.4.39. (H)

H/2

Sri Krishna Bhat MBBS one of the applicants for the post of Hony Asst Medical Officer at the Govt Hospital, Kasaragode, has also applied for the post of Hony Asst Medical Officer in the Ophthalmic Dept of the Headquarters Hospital, Mangalore. The S.G. recommends his appointment. As Sri C.P. Kamath was only recently appointed for a further period of five years, it is for consideration whether the S.G's proposal to terminate his services and to appoint Sri Krishna Bhat in his place should be accepted.

p 3 CF

It will not be fair to the G.O 1552 PH Honorary Officer to be told that he should vacate (H) five years of appointment.

3 The S.G. has recommended

p3 CF

that Sri K.P. Raghavendra Rao LMS may be appointed as Hony Asst Medical Officer in the Govt Hospital, Kasargode on the assumption that Sri K. Krishna Bhat MBBS will be appointed as Hony Asst Medical Officer in the Ophthalmic Dept of the Headquarters Hospital, Mangalore. If it is considered unnecessary to disturb the existing honorary in that Hospital, it is for consideration whether K. Krishna Bhat MBBS. or K. P. Raghavendra Rao LMS may be appointed as Hony Asst Medl Officer in the Govt Hospl. Kasargode.

Sri K. Krishna Bhat may be appointed at Kasargode.
